PROFILE

Hello! I'm Md. Hasanujjaman, a passionate MERN Stack Developer from Rajshahi, Bangladesh. My journey started with curiosity about how websites work, leading me to learn HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and React, later expanding into Node.js and MongoDB. I enjoy building clean, interactive, and responsive websites that solve real-world problems and help businesses grow.

EDUCATION

- Web Development 2025
Programming Hero
Started my journey in web development through self-learning, exploring HTML, CSS, and JavaScript to build projects independently. Later, I joined the Programming Hero course, which accelerated my growth through structured learning and real-world projects, solidifying my skills as a developer.
- Diploma in Engineering 2021 - 2025
Rajshahi Polytechnic Institute
Pursuing a Diploma in Engineering Dept. of Computer Science & Technology, focusing on practical skills in programming, web development, and software engineering to build a strong foundation for my career as a developer.
- SSC 2021
Shibganj Govt. Model High School
Successfully completed my Secondary School Certificate (SSC) in Science, building a strong foundation in Mathematics and Physics that sparked my interest in problem-solving and technology.
